

Instructions

- Using command-line tool to Hide any Windows application or Launch new application in Hidden or Invisible mode requires Configuration every time you operate the application.
- Simply use taskhide software to hide and unhide any application selected in the app.
- Install the setup and check any application you'd like to hide, hover on the top icons for more options.
- Hope it will make your work easier.